

ACTION DELAYED
ON OCALA CANAL
VOTE IN 10 DAYS*If Authorized, Funds Must Then Be Provided In Separate Measure

The House rivers and harbors committee, which has been holding sessions on the proposed Florida ship canal for several weeks, has delayed action on the matter for a week or ten days at least according to news dispatched from Washington.

Congressman Joseph J. Manfield of Texas, chairman of the committee, said the delay was caused by the absence of several members who had indicated their desire to vote in home elections.

Congressman Alfred E. Belter of New York, a member of the committee, said he had awaited a reply from Daniel W. Bell, acting budget director, on whether the proposed $197,000,000 Florida ship canal is in conformance with President Roosevelt's economy program.

Belter, opponent of the canal, said he believed the President would be willing to scrap authorization if it was found that his determination to sidebar such measures as the $8,000,000 flood control and the $162,000 army highway bill had been upheld.

Congressman Frank J. Thompson of Florida, leader of the canal proponents, was confident, however, that the authorization would not seriously disturb the President's budget plan.

Belter and several other members of the committee have been making an effort to split the proposed bill out of the general rivers and harbors bill, authorizing about $181,000,000 in expenditures on about 85 projects.

They wish to get a "showdown" vote on the floor of the canal authorization which, they believe, will be the only bill which, if they admitted, would give it more voting strength.

Rep. Thompson of Texas, Florida's leader, indicated he would put no obstacles in the way of the bill on the floor if the committee should report it favorably, but ample time will be given the committee's action would be the determining factor.

Order Boat Owners To Get Craft Out

Owners of two boats now moored in West Palm Beach canal at Canal Point have been ordered to remove the craft. One of the boats is a house boat located near Custard Apple Lodge, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Barrett. The other is a boat in which "Slim" Ferris has a fish market and a beer saloon.

The removal order was served by a deputy sheriff at the instance of the commissioners of Everglades Drainage District.

The order was brought in two years ago by the State Equipment Company of Jacksonville. It is located down stream, east of the bridge. The Ferris boat market is located where it was placed in front of the Grand Dry Goods Company store a few months ago. The Ferris barge is particularly objected to, rowdy conduct being charged against patrons of the beer large business.

WOULD HAVE INSPECTOR OF MARKS AND BRANDS

Appointment of W. J. Larimore as inspector of marks and brands has been recommended to the county commissioners by Doyle W. Crocker, commissioner from the Everglades district. The proposal is the suggestion. Purpose of inspection is the prevention of theft and the insuring of proper quality of meats butchered locally. Mr. Larimore is Justice of the peace and an ex-mayor of Pahokee.

ALL BAKERIES DOWN TO UNIFORM WEIGHT LOAD

West Palm Beach and Miami bakers, following a state-wide movement, to which Fort Pierce is also a party, have reduced the size of 14-ounce loaves of bread to 14-ounce loaves of 16 oz.

"W. Tilly" Home Town bakery at Pahokee has also adopted the 14-ounce loaf as its standard.

Increased cost of flour and other materials is given as the cause of the reduction in weight of loaves.

Fine Progress At Golf Course Told
In Annual Report

The second annual meeting of the Lake Okeechobee Golf Club was held Monday night at the Legion Hall in Pahokee. Officers for the coming year were elected: H. L. Tapp, president; Jack Barrett, vice president; Amy Whidden, secretary; V. C. Denton, treasurer; board of directors — W. P. Jernigan, Jr., V. Thomas, W. E. Williams, F. D. Banning, R. T. Gibson, Jr.

Plans for a new club house were informally discussed. If finance permits a moderate club house will be built this summer at the location of the present building. Sam McKinstry was appointed chairman of the new club house building committee. Other committees appointed were: Finance, W. J. Harrington and F. D. Banning; tournament committee, F. D. Banning, chairman; F. G. L. Vane, the president and secretary are members of all committees.

In order to stimulate play and give all residents in the area an opportunity to play golf the golf club decided to try a plan of limited green fees. From May 15th to June 15th, all residents are invited to try out the course free of charge. If they care to enter any tournaments being held they will be welcome but will have to pay the tournament fee which is usually 50 cents. They will also pay caddy fees if they use a caddy. It is hoped that this plan will develop some new golfers who will be interested in becoming members of the club.

There are at present two tournaments in progress. The "chukker" or "choice score" contest has been in progress for about two weeks. There are about twenty-four entries in this contest. There is with the exception of the first grand prize of $100. There is no entry fee for this tournament. This coming Saturday and Sunday will mark the fourth week in the spring tournament. Points are awarded in each feature of competition. Points are awarded for entering the contest and for the winners of the contest. The grand prize of $100 will be given to the contestant having the most points. Each week a prize is given in the form of golf balls. The entry fee is 25 cents weekly and the money collected is all used for prizes awarded weekly. The grand prize was donated by F. E. Bryant and of Canal Point. The contest is a wide open affair.

The course is in good condition and the greens and buildings are in good shape. Within the next two weeks all greens will be mowed and resodded. With summer coming on the supply of caddies will be adequate for all players' needs. The club has plans to take advantage of the off-season and will come out and find out something about this game which is so popular throughout the country.

WAGE BATTLE IN CONGRESS OVER
SUGAR IN GLADES*Foreign Trade Advocates Oppose Expansion Of Florida Industry

A sub-committee of the House committee on agriculture has recommended that Florida and Oregon sugar districts be granted authority to increase their production by any increase is being vigorously opposed by several strong interests.

Everglades News reported last week President Roosevelt's threat to veto the bill if the allotment he had recommended is changed. Since then Secretary of Agriculture Wallace and the tax of Interior Ikeles have supported Secretary of State's protest against increases in American production of raw sugar, and the Foreign Trade Commission has urged that more foreign sugar be let in.

There is a contest also between the American sugar producers and the beet sugar producers. The beet sugar producers contend that Florida's sugar production is an "uneconomic" basis.

Consumers' organizations are in agreement that sugar production is tight, protesting against any action that would increase the retail price; they favor entry of more foreign sugar into the United States.

Senator Claude Pepper is carrying on the fight for the Florida cane sugar growers, whose plantations are at Fellsmere, in the Lake Okeechobee railroad in the Lake Okeechobee section of the Florida East Coast Railroad.

"Florida has definitely established, by economic production, its right to a substantial portion of the American sugar market," Pepper said.

"We have asked permission for unlimited production of sugar in Florida on the theory that the American consumer is entitled to the lowest price."

"Increased production in Florida house is now government

Recent Operations

By Paul Hardin

Engrossed with his duties in public service at Tallahassee, Dr. Paul Hardin, representative of the Legislature on Palm Beach county, did not find time this week to write a weekly letter.

Or, if he did, they have gone into the mail. Anyway, the inclosing room forest has not received copy for "Recent Operations."

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

By Russell Kay.

A rule I don't go 'round in trouble, but when Officers of the Tampa Force invited me to a for a ride in his newly opened two-way radio station last Saturday night it sounded interesting so I accepted.

Modern radio sleuthing is a little flat. You tune in to the headquarters operator and just like dropping a line in the air. You sit there and wait, or know what's gonna happen. There's no action. A lone squirrel sits a bit of rest, examines the lines on his rod and wonders if outfit will stand him when big trouble comes. The radio cop is that waiting signal that sends a message and in the meantime makes sure his tanner in his hot pocket, his service revolver is ready, his rifle is handy and other equipment ready for any emergency, and so wonders if it will stand when the big moment arrives. He's not alone. These were some routine in name, but in actuality, a joke, a quarrel, a drink, all in other zones, in the guys in the other boats gettin' a few small fish, then seas.

AS THE PIONEERS PASS
As all must do, Reed Bryan has died.

Last week there was a news item about him in this newspaper; last week was a relatively unimportant item, ten years ago thousands of readers would have known what it was all about. Many of the men who knew Reed Bryan, then have passed away. In death, the thoughts of new-comers his name has no significance.

The deaths of Dr. Thomas E. Will and Reed Bryan are reminders that we have passed another era, another in the Everglades. This is an era of second generation and of a second crop of settlers. It will be another forty years before the new-comers in the Everglades of today can know their country as well as Dr. Will and Reed Bryan and men of their kind knew this region in the first place. What pioneers had vision and a program and they exerted themselves to realize their visions.

It is an axiom that it takes several crops of settlers to develop a country. The crop of settlers in the Everglades did their work well. Have the settlers in this present generation as clear a vision, as definite a program, and the desire to see their dreams serve for the realization of their vision? It is to be hoped they have.

THE BEST WAY OUT

Those of us who want to get away off of the public roads had better take what we can get from this section of the Legislature and not insist on impossibilities.

As the Fort Myers News-Press indicates that the Tallahassee legislature is to meet at Tallahassee to curb the evil of cattle on the roads that has a chance of passage is the Lee county bill permitting the erection of fences by private individuals.

This bill was introduced by Rep. George Wood at the request of George Wood at the request of leading cattlemen of this region and has passed committee scrutiny to win a place on the house floor. The unhappy fact is that we cannot "push our own canoe" for this bill. If we do, it will be understood that it is favorable to many brokers or to be a monopoly of beans. When a man complains "there are too many," he is complaining "because there are too many," far removed from the question without answering it. The question becomes, "Is unfair competition?" The lower the price the more beans are sold. Many think it is the winner because it is in demand. Some growers cannot expect to have a monopoly or can never newspaper men.

We are in the same boat—
"push our own canoe" and we will succeed in bringing it up for a vote and as no opposition has itself inserted the bill will probably pass.

In the meantime, it is understood that an favorable caption awaits and if Senator Connie can steer it through a last minute jam its enactment will stand as a result of this contribution to the welfare of the nuisance of cows on the road.

Mr. Wood's bill, which was first suggested by Mark Bennett and published in the News-Press recently, was also introduced in the State Road Department to allow the cattle men to build fences at the cattlemen's expense on state roads right of way.

The legislation is not over the land on which their cows graze, so they can't build fences there. The best they can do is build fences on the road rights of way. That was some. Something more and better can be done later.

FRIDAY, MAY 14, 1937

IN LIEU OF GOLF

By Howard Sharp.

For a few weeks, pending more definite adjustment, I am back on the Everglades News, limiting myself to writing "copy," however, and not taking any position of authority. After in the Pahokee News, that along with this, has brought much back to the newspaper business in general and the Everglades in particular. If anybody wants to know what's the thoughts are, here they are.

A newspaperman, the Everglades has anywhere, and I have come to believe that the problem of the country newspaper is that of the country town. The two problems must go together, that when one is settled the other is settled along with it. Or, if they are not "problems" as such, it seems to me that is, that reason for discussing the subject is, that we are not in print, in public. If it was more than a country newspaper, I might be able to bring it to the attention of the public.

It doesn't settle the question, "why?" because there are too many countries," because it may not be true, just as it may not be true that there are too many stores or too many grocers, too many brokers or too many bean buyers. The point is, that the bean buyers are not good as those in a "western" magazine or movie.

J. B. F. Hughes, a dentist at Pahokee, used to be a cowboy and a showman, combining the two in a sketch and rodeo. If you give him a start, he'll go far away from the old paths for the sake of peace and happiness for the people of the age.

The public is cordially invited.

DELICATE DELIGHT

COME MAY, I always get a handful of extra time for dessertable desserts with a dash of spring fluted into them—a pie filled crème, or banana whipped cream, or Angel food cake, natural if ever there was one. Put together so, it's no trick to construct a pie crust, or a tart pastry of 1 cupful sifted all-purpose flour, ½ teaspoon salt, 1 egg, ½ cup cold water, 1 cup sugar, 1 cup melted butter. Roll to a nice fit into a seven-inch pie pan and place over the filling. Then bake at 375° for 12 minutes until delicately brown. Meanwhile whip cream to the very thick stage, but not stiff, and fold in 1 cupful of prepared Brown Pure Apple Butter. This softens the cream enough to hold its shape.

Wipe a 9x12 inch plate alternate layers of cream and sliced bananas (you can slice the peeled fruit after you shred coconut, chill and serve).

For life's lighter moments when a festive dessert is called for, here's a simple dessert for family desserts or as informal fare for simple entertaining.

STYLING TOMATO SHRIMP ROLL

Here's a dish to play the stellar role in your next luncheon party.

It's sure of success! Clean and drain a cup of shrimp—or use a dozen fresh ones if you're lucky enough to be able to get it.

Combine shrimp with 1 teaspoonful mayonnaise (you can add the peeled fruit after you shred coconut, chill and serve).

With 2 cupfuls of milk, 1 tablespoonful of minute tapioca, 1½ tablespoonsful of instant sugar and ¼ teaspoonful of vanilla, beat well.

Boil until the tapioca begins to thicken, then cook for five minutes. Remove from fire and cautiously add a wee bit of beaten egg white. Blend thoroughly and combine with the rest of the filling. Fold in 1 cupful of whipped cream if you like.

Blend the filling and spread on a layer of this pastry and roll up like a jelly roll. Bake in a middling oven, about 375° F., to get down to fine points, until the crust is brown and crisp. Serve hot with this Brown Dutch Soup, the kind that's good to have on hand.

What is the "Low-price Field"?

You hear a lot about "the low-price field" these days. A good many cars claim to be in it. So whenever the low-price field is mentioned, remember:

Until Ford came, no average American could own a car.

Today all Ford prices are still low—with the prices of the 60-horsepower Ford V-8 $30 to $60 lower than those of any other car of comparable size.

But with Ford, "low price" doesn't merely mean low figures on the price tag. It means much more than that. It means low prices and low costs all the car's long life. Low prices for service—for parts—and, above all, for operation.

Both Ford V-8 engine sizes are economical to operate. The 85 horsepower gives greater gasoline mileage this year than ever, and the '60" delivers the highest mileage in Ford history.

Private owners, cab companies, fleet operators all report that the '60" averages from 22 to 27 miles per gallon of gasoline.

Check and see how much Ford saves you.
